Testimonials

The interaction between entrepreneurs, CEOs, the venture community, and investors is an extraordinary, strong, very productive mix. No conference brings it to bear like this youngStartup Ventures conference does. – Carl Berke, Founder, Berke International Group

I have participated in numerous youngStartup conferences over the last decade, and always find them to be a highly interactive, multidimensional way to think out loud, learn, understand emerging trends, and network with the entrepreneurial community. Joe Benjamin and his youngStartup forums deserve the attention of those who seek to understand the early stage venture ecosystem. – Dan Burstein, Managing Partner, Millenium Technology

We first took advantage of Young StartUp when we were just that – a three-month-old company, with three founders at the kitchen table. We presented, and youngStartup Ventures led us directly to investors that participated in both our Series A and Series B rounds. Their conferences work. – Dave Gwodz, CFO, Mojiva Inc.

It's impressive that companies can present what they're doing in a very short period of time. It's a very efficient way to hear about a lot of companies quickly. The panels have good panel members addressing a lot of good issues. It's been a good day for everybody. – Noah Kroloff, Managing Partner, NGN Capital

The investors I met at the Venture Summit, and their connections, led to an over-subscribed investment round. – Cora Leibig, Founder and CEO, Chromatic 3D Materials

The quality of the feedback given to entrepreneurs by investors prior to "showtime" was unparalleled in my experience. I highly recommend this conference. – Mary Lincoln Campbell, Managing Director, EDF Ventures

The collection of the quality of the companies and the amount of investors make your events second to none. – Peter Longo, Senior Managing Director of Investments, Connecticut Innovations.
